

EXPLORE THE POSSIBILITIES: PRO BONO & PUBLIC INTEREST LAW PLACEMENTS

Sponsored by Phi Alpha Delta, the Public Interest Law Initiative and the Chicago Area Law School Consortium

The John Marshall Law School Student Lounge

Saturday, October 17, 2009

8:30 a.m. -- Breakfast and Registration

9:00 a.m. to Noon -- Program

Looking to secure a placement at a public interest law organization or in the government sector? This program is for Chicago-area law students and recent graduates who are interested in learning more about placements as volunteers, interns or externs, fellows or staff at public interest law organizations. BUT HURRY! You must register by October 13th!

The program will begin with a panel discussion focusing on how to obtain pro bono and public interest law placements, particularly PILI Internships and Fellowships, Equal Justice Works Fellowships, Skadden Fellowships as well as incorporating pro bono and public interest law into your legal experience in law school and throughout your career. The panel will include:

Reena Bajowala, Jenner & Block

Nichole Cain, Illinois Department of Human Rights

Jennifer Hrycyna, Skadden Fellow at Shriver Center for Poverty Law

Jarrett Knox, Equal Justice Works Fellow at Legal Aid Bureau of Metropolitan Family Services

Following the panel discussion, there will be career service representatives available from Chicago-Kent School of Law, DePaul University College of Law, The John Marshall Law School, Loyola University School of Law, and the University of Chicago School of Law. These representatives will conduct resume review and interviewing tips sessions with attendees. Bring copies of your resumes and cover letters for this session.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet with leading attorneys in private, government, and public interest law practice as well as a member of the judiciary. During these group mentoring sessions, you will have the opportunity to meet:

Susan J. Curry, Public Interest Law Initiative

P. Sean Ginty, Office of Executive Inspector General for Agencies of the Illinois Governor

Jordan M. Heinz, Kirkland & Ellis LLP

Honorable Arnette R. Hubbard, Judge, Circuit Court of Cook County – Law Division

Sean G. Wieber, Winston & Strawn LLP

Students and recent graduates like are encouraged to take this unique opportunity to learn about Phi Alpha Delta, Public Interest Law Initiative, the Chicago Area Law School Consortium, and Illinois Legal Aid Online. Breakfast will be provided at this complimentary program. For additional information, contact PILI's Director of Programs, Michael Bergmann, at 312-832-5129 or mbergmann@pili-law.org.

Advance registration is required by October 13th by e-mailing rsyp@pili-law.org.