

PRO BONO INITIATIVE

PBI Corporate Roundtable Series

As a complement to the Semi-Annual PBI Pro Bono Forum, PBI has launched a semi-annual Corporate Roundtable Series to bring together corporate pro bono leaders from around Illinois. The Corporate Roundtable Series will provide corporate pro bono leaders with an opportunity to network, discuss the unique pro bono challenges facing corporate attorneys and to share best practices and strategies for successful pro bono programs. Corporate pro bono leaders are invited to participate in person or by phone.

AGENDA

Wednesday, February 13, 2008 – 12:00 until 1:30 p.m.
Aon Corporation, 200 East Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois

- I. Welcome – Michael G. Bergmann, PBI Director
- II. Introductions and Brief Description of Pro Bono Program By Attendees
- III. Hot Topics:
 - a. Proposed Illinois Supreme Court Rule Change for In-House Counsel
 - b. The Chicago Bar Foundation Statement of Principles
 - c. Conflicts Checks
 - d. Malpractice Insurance
- IV. Other Discussion?
- V. Important Upcoming Dates:
 - a. PBI Spring Pro Bono Forum will be held from 3:00 to 6:00 at The Chicago Bar Association on Thursday, April 24, 2008, and is entitled "What If? Why Not?: Exploring Pro Bono Possibilities in an Imperfect World."
 - b. PBI "Celebrating Pro Bono" Reception will be held from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 10, 2008, at the Harold Washington Library's Winter Garden Room.
- VI. Topics for Next Meeting – August 2008