

---

PILI Law School Pro Bono & Public Interest Law Roundtable

---

Tuesday, July 14, 2009 – 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.
Seyfarth Shaw LLP – 131 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois

As a complement to the Pro Bono Forum, the Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) is launching a Law School Pro Bono & Public Interest Law Roundtable program to bring together law school pro bono and public interest law faculty and staff from around Illinois. The Law School Pro Bono & Public Interest Law Roundtable provides law school pro bono and public interest law faculty and staff with an opportunity to network, share information about their programs and to coordinate their efforts across Illinois. Law school pro bono and public interest law faculty and staff from around the state are invited attend in-person or by phone.

AGENDA

- I. Welcome – Michael G. Bergmann, PILI Pro Bono Initiative Director
- II. Self Introductions and Brief Descriptions By Attendees
- III. Featured Presentations on Resources for Law Schools and Students:
  - a. Overview of PILI – Susan J. Curry, Executive Director
  - b. Overview of Illinois Legal Aid Online – Lisa Colpoys, Executive Director
  - c. Overview of ABA Center for Pro Bono – Melanie Kushnir, Assistant Staff Counsel
  - d. Overview of CALSC Public Interest Efforts – Alisa Rosales, Associate Director of Law Career Services & Public Service Law DePaul University College of Law
- IV. Featured Discussions:
  - a. Impact of economic crisis on traditional internships, pro bono and community service, and careers in public interest law
  - b. Using Web 2.0 technologies to communicate with law students about pro bono and public interest law issues and opportunities
  - c. PILI's efforts to assist law schools and law students in their efforts
  - d. Other discussion?
- V. Next Meeting

Advanced registration is required by Friday, July 10th. Please register at rsvp@pili-law.org and indicate whether you will be attending in person or by phone.