

Republic of Rwanda
Ministry of Justice Internships

The Republic of Rwanda Ministry of Justice is seeking attorneys for a six month to one year commitment to work on-site with Rwandan attorneys, on a variety of legal matters, including contract review, negotiations, arbitrations and dispute resolution, among other areas. These internships will provide an exciting opportunity to gain a unique and valuable experience as well as exposure to distinguished government officials and business leaders and investors from around the world supporting Rwanda's dynamic economic and social development. Candidates must have a degree from an accredited U.S. law school. Interns will receive a monthly stipend, housing accommodations, and transportation will be provided through the duration of the internship. Travel expenses to and from Rwanda are also covered. To apply, please submit your resume, law school transcript and a cover letter explaining your interest and/or relevant experience to anne.gatchel@dlapiper.com.

For more information about the Ministry, please visit <http://www.minijust.gov.rw/>. To learn more about Rwanda's development strategy, please visit the Rwanda Development Board's website (<http://www.rdb.rw/>).